

Historical Figure Commemorative Plaque

Due: 1/22/16 (Friday)

A commemorative plaque is a plate of metal, ceramic, stone, wood, or other material, typically attached to a wall, stone or other surface. It has text and/or an image in memory or recognition of one or more persons or event.

You will use the information that you have researched to create a commemorative plaque that honors and recognizes your historical figure for their contributions.

Requirements:

- Use the plaque template provided in class.
- The name of the person must be written across the top of the plaque in large lettering.
- Include the award title for your plaque: History Hall of Fame (title should stand out)
- You must create an illustration to depict this person: could include a symbol or drawing of the person
- Please provide a written summary on the plaque explaining why this person is being recognized/inducted into the Hall of Fame (1 or 2 sentences is acceptable)—Student will be graded on spelling, grammar, and neatness.
- You must use markers, crayons, or colored pencils.
- Scratch marks are not acceptable!
- Fully use the space provided

Historical Figure Commemorative Plaque

Due: 1/22/16 (Friday)

A commemorative plaque is a plate of metal, ceramic, stone, wood, or other material, typically attached to a wall, stone or other surface. It has text and/or an image in memory or recognition of one or more persons or event.

You will use the information that you have researched to create a commemorative plaque that honors and recognizes your historical figure for their contributions.

Requirements:

- Use the plaque template provided in class.
- The name of the person must be written across the top of the plaque in large lettering.
- Include the award title for your plaque: History Hall of Fame (title should stand out)
- You must create an illustration to depict this person: could include a symbol or drawing of the person
- Please provide a written summary on the plaque explaining why this person is being recognized/inducted into the Hall of Fame (1 or 2 sentences is acceptable)—Student will be graded on spelling, grammar, and neatness.
- You must use markers, crayons, or colored pencils.
- Scratch marks are not acceptable!
- Fully use the space provided

Historical Figure Commemorative Plaque

Due: 1/22/16 (Friday)

A commemorative plaque is a plate of metal, ceramic, stone, wood, or other material, typically attached to a wall, stone or other surface. It has text and/or an image in memory or recognition of one or more persons or event.

You will use the information that you have researched to create a commemorative plaque that honors and recognizes your historical figure for their contributions.

Requirements:

- Use the plaque template provided in class.
- The name of the person must be written across the top of the plaque in large lettering.
- Include the award title for your plaque: History Hall of Fame (title should stand out)
- You must create an illustration to depict this person: could include a symbol or drawing of the person
- Please provide a written summary on the plaque explaining why this person is being recognized/inducted into the Hall of Fame (1 or 2 sentences is acceptable)—Student will be graded on spelling, grammar, and neatness.
- You must use markers, crayons, or colored pencils.
- Scratch marks are not acceptable!
- Fully use the space provided