President Reads Armistice Terms

(By United Press)

Washington, Nov. 11—President Wilson today addressed the joint session of Congress at one o'clock regarding the armistice terms which brought Germany to surrender, ending the war.

The allied armistice terms accepted by Germany as read by President Wilson to the joint session of congress at one o'clock this afternoon includes: Cessation of hostilities, evacuation of invaded territory, including Alsace Lorraine and Luxemburg, surrender of a vast amount of guns and equipment, the evacuation of the left bank of the Rhine, surrender of the vast amount of rolling stock in the occupied territories, abandonment of the Bucharest and Brest treaties, unconditional surrender of all German forces in East Africa, the concentration of air craft at stipulated points, the evacuation of all Black Sea ports, the restoration of all allied and United States merchant vessels, duration of the armistice to 30 days, reparation for all damages done, and the surrender of scores of submarines and larger vessels.

(Specials to the Dispatch by the United Press.

“America Gains All She Fought For.”

---PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON.

Washington--President Wilson to-day issued the following proclamation: My fellow countrymen—the armistice was signed this morning. Everything for which America fought has been accomplished. It will now be our fortunate duty to assist by example, by sober friendly counsel and by material aid in the establishment of just democracy throughout the world, Signed, WOODROW WILSON, President.

American Boys Delighted Laughed and Sang

BY WEBB MILLER

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

With the Americans in France, Nov. 11—Motorcycle couriers tore along the road shouting “It’s All Over, Boys!” The marching columns fired and undisturbed, were galvanized into new life. They shouted, laughed and sang. It was easy to tell who had heard and who had not. German men were tamed instantly into laughing boys. With watches in their hand the gunners continued pouring fourteen inch and smaller shells far into the German rear until the last minute.
